DEPARTMENT 18 EDUCATIONAL EXHIBITS

Dwain Shaw - Superintendent

1. Exhibit must be entry of organized Community Club or 4H Project Club.
2. Twelve Community Clubs in County.
3. Space will be 8' x 8'.
4. Judging on Educational Values and Attractiveness.

RULES

Each Community Club will be allowed to enter and exhibit in the Middle Tennessee Fair. The space allotted each Club will be 8' x 8'. The exhibit will be judged and awarded either a blue or red ribbon. The Clubs awarded a blue ribbon will receive $100 for the Club. Those Clubs receiving a red ribbon will receive $75 for their Club.

Each 4H Project Club will be allowed a space of 4' x 8'. Exhibits will be judged and awarded either a blue or red ribbon. 4H Project Clubs receiving a blue ribbon will receive $75 and clubs receiving a red ribbon will receive $50.

In addition, each personal exhibit entered in the Middle Tennessee Fair will count one point for the Community Club of which they are a member. Each community club that enters an educational booth will receive 25 bonus points toward their totals from individual exhibits. After all exhibits are entered, points will be tabulated, and the three Clubs with the most points will receive: 1st place $300.00, 2nd $200.00, 3rd $100.00.
